REVIEW OF MARKETS FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

Stocks, Money, Exchange Bonds, Grain, Cotton, Provisions, Etc.

New York, June 28.—An effort was made to repeat the demonstration of strength in the stock market, which was given by the outburst of activity and strength, which carried prices to the highest in the closing dealings yesterday, but with only partial success. Manhattan was rushed up to a final quotation of 119½, which was 3½ above last night's price, as New York Central was rushed up tate yesterday. The sympathetic effect on the general list was far below that of the New York Central movement. Decidedly the most significant feature of the day's trading was the cessation of the upward movement in New York Central and affiliated stocks. There was an active opening in the stock, caused by the accumulation of commission house orders, which were attracted by the recent strong upward movement of the stock. It was advanced early in the day almost a point. The demand was evidently satisfied for the time being, and the movement lacked snap. The price was allowed to lag. There were various factors of strength in the day's developments, which prevented a break in the price of railrond stocks, but there was obvious profit taking at some points, and the day's net advances are small except in a few cases. The raily at the close did not bring prices back to the top level. The most potent influence in favor of the bulls was the favorable disposition manifested toward American securities in the London market. This was in face of a tendency to duliness and depression in the general market there. The takings for London account in this market were estimated at 35.000 shares or upwards of various stocks. The demand was most eager for Louisville and Nashville, which rose nearly 2 points on the London buying was shown in a drop in the actual rate for demand sterling to 4.87½, thus precluding the likelihood of further gold exports at the present time. The local money market also remained, steady, in spite of the activity of the speculation in the stock market. Statements of railroad earnings, which were received during the day, continu which were received during the day continued the extraordinarily favorable showing.

The cash demand for wheat and the buying for export were sustaining factors in the Granger group, even though the decline in the heavy Northwest receipts was reported to have set in Inview of these continued strong features in the situation an effort was made to shift the speculatvie activity into the lower grade of railroad stocks, when it was seen that New York Central had become quiescent and profits were being taken elsewhere.

Southern and Western railroad stocks were the favorites. Finally the industrial stocks, which had been entirely neglected, were taken in hand for a rise under the encouragement of the strength manifested by Sugar and American Tobacco. They proved rather heavy to lift and dropped off in the last hour. Continental Tobacco and Federal Steel being especially weak. The firmness at the close was on short covering induced by the final spurt in Manhattan.

Railroad bonds were moderately ac.

was a narrow one, even the more active positions working within a range of cight points.

The market opened steady at 1@2 points advance; early cables giving considerable confidence, especially as to the excellent showing in the way of spot business at Liverpool, with prices indicating a good foreign demand for actual cotton, wanted for large orders extending well into the future for cloths and yarns. Soon after the call, however, the market weakened under late cables, which indicated a disposition to liquidate long interest in the Liverpool market under the bearish influence of fine crop prospects in this country.
